What does it mean to be a people of resilience?

February 23, 2020 9:30 and 11:15 AM

Resilience

Young Religious Unitarian Universalists (YRUU)

Teens from our vibrant youth group have been thinking about and discussing what resilience means to them as people coming of age in uncertain times.

Please join them for a participatory service of music, ritual, reflection, and the ever-popular snowball fight! No actual snow is involved. Show up if you want to know what the term "snowball fight" means to this group. This group is advised by Pat Mahoney, Fred Sypher, and Tom Zeller this year.

The Wisdom Of Lent

NEW MEMBER RECOGNITION SUNDAY

Rev. Clare L. Petersberger, Karyn Marsh, Membership Chair, Stephen Brown-Pearn, Dominique Hall and new members

Our spiritual question for March is: "What does it mean to be a people of wisdom?"

From 1938 until 1960, Unitarians and Universalists answered this question through the annual publication of a Lenten manual. Yes, you read this correctly. The Unitarians and Universalists published a Lenten manual with meditation and prayers for each of the days between Ash Wednesday and Easter. What wisdom was contained in these manuals for theologically diverse Unitarians and Universalists? And what might this tradition of taking forty days for reflection mean for us as a people of wisdom today?

Today, we formally welcome new members. Wisdom is found in turning the world upside down---if only for a brief time. Having just experienced the change of Daylight Saving Time, today we ask, "What would a UU festival of Clown Wisdom look like?"

RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION

Our three younger groups will start out upstairs in the service and then be sung down to join with friends new and old for their class or group.

World of Wonder: Thanks Be to Trees

No shade tree? Blame not the sun but yourself. — Chinese proverb

This session focuses on the vital role trees play in our ecosystems, as imaginatively told in a story about a young girl in India (based on the Chipko—or "tree-hugging" — movement in India). Children will physically embody a tree in an activity that teaches the purpose of each part of a tree. A guided meditation promotes a spiritual connection with the life cycle of a tree.

2nd/3rd Grade

Faithful Journeys: Welcoming Superman

This session uses the story of Unitarian Universalist Christopher Reeve to examine our first Unitarian Universalist Principle, the inherent worth and dignity of every person.

After a fall from a horse, Reeve went from being an active, athletic man who portrayed Superman on-screen to losing the ability to move his body below the neck. Reeve went on to live a different kind of heroism as an advocate for research and support to help people with spinal cord injuries. He spoke to Congress and many other audiences. He founded the Christopher and Dana Reeve Foundation, which funds research on spinal cord injuries and offers grants to improve the lives of people who have become disabled.

Christopher Reeve's story serves as a springboard to issues of inclusion as children are guided to reflect on the ways we affirm the worth and dignity of every person. They learn how our congregations affirm our first Principle when we provide accessibility to people of differing abilities, and they consider what it means when we fail to provide such a welcome.

Participants explore what they can accomplish without using physical abilities they ordinarily rely on. As they broaden their thinking about what constitutes "ability" or "disability," children also learn that each of us has the capacity to use our personal agency to do good in the world — no matter how we are "abled."

4th-6th Grade

Harry and UU: Fighting Environmental Dangers

This class continues to learn about the horcrux of environmental degradation. This Sunday they learn about native plants and their importance to supporting wildlife and prepare seed packets and instructions for the congregation.

GREEN SANCTUARY

Friday, March 13th. The Green Sanctuary Committee and ADORE present

The Condor and the Eagle, an award-winning documentary film about four indigenous leaders who embark on an extraordinary trans-continental adventure from the Canadian plains to deep into the heart of the Amazonian jungle to unite the peoples of North and South America and deepen the meaning of "Climate Justice".

Their path through the jungle takes them on an unexpectedly challenging and liberating journey, which will forever change their attachment to the Earth and one another.

There is no charge for this program, but donations will be accepted for the UUMFE (UU Ministry for Earth), which is an executive producer of this film. UUMFE will use the funds to bring the filmmakers, protagonists, and other Indigenous partners to the UUA's

General Assembly (where reckoning with colonization and UU colonial history, and committing to Indigenous solidarity, will be a major focus), and to support ongoing UU organizing in partnership and solidarity with Indigenous leaders through the UUA Create Climate Justice campaign. Vegetarian Potluck begins at 6:30, with the movie beginning about 7:15 PM.

LOBBYING IN ANNAPOLIS

On Monday February 17, 2020, TUUC members Kathy

Ramirez, Marilyn Anikisis, and Jane D'Ambrogi met with legislators/their TA's and dropped off material on bills supported by UULM, ACLU, JUFJ (Jews United for Justice) and Out for Justice (one of our community partners). We took part in the Woman's rally and cheered on fellow UU's and other friends as we passed each other in the hallways.

NO CHILD GOES HUNGRY (NCGH),

A nonprofit based in Northern VA. awarded TUUC a grant of $1000 to help feed hungry children.

Several years ago, Assistance Center of Towson Churches started the program Food For Thought. This program packs food each Friday for children receiving school lunches. This provides them with food for the weekends. It has been a very successful program. The Social Action Committee .has approved giving this grant to ACTC for Food For Thought. The grant will provide food for 30 children for 5 weeks.

EARL'S PLACE provides housing and support services to men who are experiencing homelessness and are in recovery from substance use disorders. Our linen closet is getting a little low. Donations of new or gently used twin size bed sheets or blankets and towels would be greatly appreciated. Thank you to everyone at TUUC for your continued support. Frank is one of our current residents and the youngest. He is taking classes in Microsoft Technology Associate Training and recently secured an internship working part-time in the computer lab at Goodwill. Together we are changing lives. For more information, please visit our website, www.cchbaltimore.org.

ONGOING AND UPCOMING

TUUC BOOK CLUB CHOICES FOR MARCH, AND APRIL

Wednesday, March 4 @ 7:30 downstairs
Circe by Madeline Miller (fiction, 2018, 400 pages)

In the house of Helios, god of the sun and mightiest of the Titans, a daughter is born. But Circe is a strange child -- not powerful like her father, nor viciously alluring like her mother.

Turning to the world of mortals for companionship, she discovers that she does possess power -- the power of witchcraft, which can transform rivals into monsters and menace the gods themselves.

"Circe,' [is] a bold and subversive retelling of the goddess's story that manages to be both epic and intimate in its scope, recasting the most infamous female figure from the Odyssey as a hero in her own right."—Alexandra Alter, New Times

Named one of the 'Best Books of 2018' by NPR, The Washington Post, BuzzFeed, People, Time, Amazon, Entertainment Weekly, Bustle, Newsweek, the A.V. Club, Christian Science Monitor, Southern Living, and Refinery 29.

Wednesday April 1- 7:30 downstairs
A Woman of No Importance by Sonia Purnell (non-fiction, 2019, 368 pages)

In this fast-paced biography, Sonia Purnell tells the story of Virginia Hall, an American spy who worked undercover in France during World War II for Britain's Special Operations Executive (SOE). Hall's story is a surprising one: she began her life in Baltimore, Maryland with a mother who wished for the perfect debutante. Hall chose a different path. She drove ambulances in France, and was recruited by a recently formed SOE as a spy in occupied France. Hall posed as a newspaper reporter, enlisting civilians for the French Resistance and establishing an underground network of allies and becoming one of the most important spies during World War II. Purnell does an amazing job bringing Hall's exploits to life and has crafted a gripping and cinematic biography for an unsung hero of wartime espionage. Chosen as a BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR by NPR, the New York Public Library, the Seattle Times, the Washington Independent Review of Books, BookBrowse, the Spectator, and the Times of London

All our welcome. Contact Jane Selewach (listed in Breeze) if you have any questions.

The First Friday Movie March 6 @ 6:30 PM
PARIS IS BURNING

In the late 1980s, a vibrant underground community developed around “drag balls,” where members of the African-American and Latin LGBT community created a space to celebrate their identities with joy and bravado. This landmark 1990 documentary—a focal point of academic discussions around race, gender, and sexuality—is a provocative and transcendent experience. Join Andrew Hager for the film, followed by discussion. Bring a snack.

GREATER BALTIMORE CLUSTER GATHERING

Saturday, February 29, 2020

8:30 am to 3:30 pm EST

Type of event: Conference

Sponsor: Central East Region of the UUA,
The First Unitarian Church of Baltimore,
Baltimore, MD

We are reviving the Greater Baltimore Cluster of Unitarian Universalist Churches. The topic of this meeting is Building an Inclusive Community. Communities are essential to our well-being. The Greater Baltimore Cluster gives you/us a chance to expand our sense of community by engaging with people from your neighboring UU congregations. What can we do together to strengthen the UU experience? Would you like to meet people who are involved in worship arts, religious education, adult spiritual development, racial and social justice and more?

Following Paula’s presentation, there will be a short business meeting at which we will plan the next steps for the Cluster.

Paula Cole Jones, UUA Regional Staff

Member, will guide us in looking at a new, collaborative way to engage with each other in discussion and decision-making. When we focus on the well-being of Communities, we can develop a more inclusive culture for all. What might it look like for our Principles to be in action, while integrating the 8th Principle of building Beloved Community? Are there more inclusive and healthier ways to engage in democratic process? On February 29th we will explore these questions together.

Cost: Registration is $20 and includes lunch and will be collected at the door.
