What does it mean to be a people of Wisdom?

The Wisdom Of Lent

NEW MEMBER RECOGNITION SUNDAY

Rev. Clare L. Petersberger; Karyn Marsh,
Membership Chair; Stephen Brown-Pearn;
Dominique Hall and new members

Our spiritual question for March is: "What does it mean to be a people of wisdom?" From 1938 until 1960, Unitarians and Universalists answered this question through the annual publication of a Lenten manual. Yes, you read this correctly. The Unitarians and Universalists published a Lenten manual with meditation and prayers for each of the days between Ash Wednesday and Easter. What wisdom was contained in these manuals for theologically diverse Unitarians and Universalists? And what might this tradition of taking forty days for reflection mean for us as a people of wisdom today?

Today, we formally welcome new members. Wisdom is found in turning the world upside down---if only for a brief time. Having just experienced the change of Daylight Saving

Time, today we ask, "What would a UU festival of Clown Wisdom look like?"

SPRING CLOCKS FORWARD

FOR START OF DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

The Wisdom of Clowning

Rev. Clare L. Petersberger, Joyce Duncan

Today is not only the first day of Daylight Saving Time in the United States, it is being celebrated as Purim in Judaism and Holi in Hinduism. In the words of Soul Matters: "Costumes! Color! Food! Bonfires! Storytelling! Water Fights! March 8, 2020 is the best year ever because of the exact intersection of Purim and Holi." Both holidays entail leaving usual ways of being in the world and entering a time of disarray and play. Wisdom is found in turning the world upside down---if only for a brief time.

Having just experienced the change of Daylight Saving Time, today we ask, "What would a UU festival of Clown Wisdom look like?"

RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION

All classes and groups will be learning about hunger and helping to make tins of lasagna that will be donated to Our Daily Bread, a community kitchen in downtown Baltimore.

CLASSES

Those in 7th through 9th grades, who are usually in OWL, do not need to arrive early this week. They should join other class members in the meeting room. All classes will be sung down to participate in our action to alleviate hunger.

Please consider taking home one or two tins of lasagna to bake and then freeze. These need to be returned by March 15, when they will be delivered to Our Daily Bread.

Take time during coffee hour to look at the poster in the foyer commemorating Black History, that was assembled by our Kindergarten/First grade class with help from their teachers, Zinnia Epps and Angela Castillo-Epps.

FROM THE BOARD

A MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD PRESIDENT

In these times of uncertainty regarding the upcoming elections and the evolving coronavirus epidemic, one can easily become anxious over legitimate concerns over the safety of all. In such times please remember the certainty of the positive role that TUUC plays in the lives of members of the church and the wider community.

TUUC continues to do good works through numerous programs spearheaded by the social action committee and the other hard-working committees of the program council. Herb Shankroff delivers food and supplies from church members to the Assistance Center of Towson Churches year after year. Sallie Ward cheerfully enlists members to meet our casserole quotas for Our Daily Bread throughout the year. Sue Royer, in addition to her many other roles, has led church volunteers for the Mentoring Male Teens in the Hood Program for a number of years. Additionally, Sheila Malenski and others provide continued support for Earl's Place.

TUUC is making progress at becoming more effective at promoting the mission of the church. The program council led by President-elect Sue Royer has created new synergies and integration between church programs. Furthermore, the Sunday Morning Taskforce is investigating novel ways to structure Sunday worship services to improve the experience of members and guests. Lastly, the Board has been working all year to update the church bylaws, for presentation at the annual congregational meeting in June.

TUUC has a great leadership team to whom I wish to express my appreciation. Rev Clare is unmatched in her ability to deliver heartfelt messages on Sundays to nourish our hearts and minds. The administrative team has done a great job this year at managing the church. The staff members, including Kai Aiyetoro, our church administrator, work tirelessly to keep the church running. The Board spends long hours each month tending to any number of issues, including updating the church governance structures. (I should mention at this time that Casey Mashburn has agreed to join the board as Treasurer, taking the place of Monica Sweidel, who we will surely miss.)... Anita Cox, with help from Joe Tumbler, is leading a great Stewardship Campaign. Finally, all committee heads help produce the good works of the church.

As we move forward, transitioning from this church year to the next, I want everyone to be certain of my continued role in the church, to help in whatever way I can.

NOTES FROM THE BOARD

Please mark your calendar to attend a listening session with Board members on Sunday, March 22, after each service, regarding our governance changes, including an update on the work of the Bylaws committee and proposed Bylaw changes.

TUUC bids farewell to Treasurer Monica Sweidel and her husband Marty, who are relocating to the Leesburg, Virginia area. If you attended either service on February 16, you heard Rev. Clare extoll Monica's contributions to our church over the past five years. Monica knows how to get things done! She made many valuable contributions to our church as a trustee and Treasurer. We wish her all the best in her new ventures!

With Monica departing from the Board, the Board has conducted a search for a member qualified to fill the open position. We are pleased to announce that Marion (Casey) Mashburn will be serving as our Treasurer and a member of the Board, for the remainder of Monica's term, through June 30, 2021.

Casey's career was as an actuary for retirement plans, teaching math, and regulating insurance companies for the Maryland Insurance Administration. She has been attending TUUC off and on for more than ten years; she's been attending regularly since 2014 and joined as a member in 2018. Casey sings in the choir and helps to organize the choir music. She has participated in the meditation group, ADORE discussions, and House & Grounds work parties.

Casey was concerned about our leaking roof in 2018 and, in conjunction with House & Grounds Head Todd Robertson, brought forward a proposal for replacing the roof by borrowing from the Endowment. (The loan was later forgiven by a vote of the Congregation).

Casey is also an avid Scrabble player!

The Board voted in favor of Casey filling the open Treasurer position at our February 19 Board meeting. Welcome, Casey!

NOTICES

PROPOSED TUUC BYLAWS REVISIONS

Since November 2019, the Bylaws Committee has been reviewing TUUC's Bylaws and making recommendations for their revision. The Board approved changes to Articles 2 (Purpose) and 3 (Membership) for ratification at the June Annual Congregational Meeting. The proposed articles were sent out via email to members. They are included as an appendix to the Threshold. The Board welcomes comments and questions from the congregation. We will be having town halls on these and other Bylaws changes on Sunday, March 22, in the main meeting room both in between services and after the second service at 12:45 pm. All are welcome.

GREEN SANCTUARY Friday, March 13th.

The Green Sanctuary Committee and ADORE present The Condor and the Eagle, an award-winning documentary film about four indigenous leaders who embark on an extraordinary trans-continental adventure from the Canadian plains to deep into the heart of the Amazonian jungle to unite the peoples of North and South America and deepen the meaning of "Climate Justice".

Their path through the jungle takes them on an unexpectedly challenging and liberating journey, which will forever change their attachment to the Earth and one another.

There is no charge for this program, but donations will be accepted for the UUMFE (UU Ministry for Earth), which is an executive producer of this film. UUMFE will use the funds to bring the filmmakers, protagonists, and other Indigenous partners to the UUA's General Assembly (where reckoning with colonization and UU colonial history, and committing to Indigenous solidarity, will be a major focus), and to support ongoing UU organizing in partnership and solidarity with Indigenous leaders through the UUA Create Climate Justice campaign. Vegetarian Potluck begins at 6:30, with the movie beginning about 7:15 PM.

LOBBYING IN ANNAPOLIS

On Monday February 17, 2020, TUUC members Kathy Ramirez, Marilyn Anikis, and Jane D'Ambrogi met with legislators/their TA's and dropped off material on bills supported by UULM, ACLU, JUFJ (Jews United for Justice), and Out for Justice (one of our community partners). We took part in the Woman's rally and cheered on fellow UU's and other friends as we passed each other in the hallways.

NO CHILD GOES HUNGRY (NCGH)

A nonprofit based in Northern VA. awarded TUUC a grant of $1000 to help feed hungry children. Several years ago, Assistance Center of Towson Churches started the program Food For Thought. This program packs food each Friday for children receiving school lunches. This provides them with food for the weekends. It has been a very successful program. The Social Action Committee .has approved giving this grant to ACTC for Food For Thought. The grant will provide food for 30 children for 5 weeks.

Circe by Madeline Miller
(fiction, 2018, 400 pages)

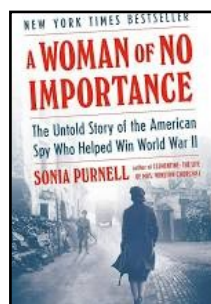

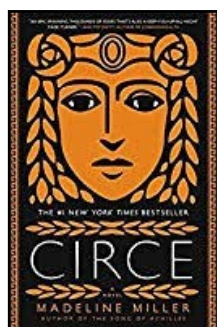

In the house of Helios, god of the sun and mightiest of the Titans, a daughter is born. But Circe is a strange child -- not powerful like her father, nor viciously alluring like her mother. Turning to the world of mortals for companionship, she discovers that she does possess power -- the power of witchcraft, which can transform rivals into monsters and menace the gods themselves.

"Circe,' [is] a bold and subversive retelling of the goddess's story that manages to be both epic and intimate in its scope, recasting the most infamous female figure from the Odyssey as a hero in her own right."—Alexandra Alter, New Times

A Woman of No Importance
by Sonia Purnell
(non-fiction, 2019, 368 pages)

In this fast-paced biography, Sonia Purnell tells the story of Virginia Hall, an American spy who worked undercover in France during World War II for Britain's Special Operations Executive (SOE). Hall's story is a surprising one: she began her life in Baltimore, Maryland with a mother who wished for the perfect debutante. Hall chose a different path. She drove ambulances in France, and was recruited by a recently formed SOE as a spy in occupied France. Hall posed as a newspaper reporter, enlisting civilians for the French Resistance and establishing an underground network of allies and becoming one of the most important spies during World War II. Purnell does an amazing job bringing Hall's exploits to life and has crafted a gripping and cinematic biography for an unsung hero of wartime espionage. Chosen as a BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR by NPR, the New York Public Library, the Seattle Times, the Washington Independent Review of Books, Book Browse, the Spectator, and the Times of London

All our welcome. Contact Jane Selewach (listed in Breeze) if you have any questions.

GREATER BALTIMORE CLUSTER GATHERING

Saturday, February 29, 2020

8:30 am to 3:30 pm EST

Type of event: Conference

Sponsor: Central East Region of the UUA,
The First Unitarian Church of Baltimore,
Baltimore, MD

We are reviving the Greater Baltimore Cluster of Unitarian Universalist Churches. The topic of this meeting is Building an Inclusive Community. Communities are essential to our well-being. The Greater Baltimore Cluster gives you/us a chance to expand our sense of community by engaging with people from your neighboring UU congregations. What can we do together to strengthen the UU experience? Would you like to meet people who are involved in worship arts, religious education, adult spiritual development, racial and social justice and more?

Following Paula’s presentation, there will be a short business meeting at which we will plan the next steps for the Cluster.

Paula Cole Jones, UUA Regional Staff Member, will guide us in looking at a new, collaborative way to engage with each other in discussion and decision-making. When we focus on the well-being of Communities, we can develop a more inclusive culture for all. What might it look like for our Principles to be in action, while integrating the 8th Principle of building Beloved Community? Are there more inclusive and healthier ways to engage in democratic process? On February 29th we will explore these questions together.

Cost: Registration is $20 and includes lunch and will be collected at the door.
