

The Threshold

Towson Unitarian
Universalist Church
A Welcoming Congregation

What does it mean to be a people of deep healing?

NOVEMBER 29, 2020 - 10:30 AM

STEPHEN L. FINNER, MINISTER OF MUSIC EMERITUS, ST. JOHNSBURY VERMONT UU CONGREGATION: *THE HEALING POWER OF MUSIC

Originally I planned a service on UU Hymnody. But the more I thought about it, the more it was sounding like an academic lecture and not a worship service. Since the worship theme of the month is "Healing", and I was going to talk about music, it is clear that we should reflect on "The Healing Power of Music". Tracy has found a wonderful song on this theme for our gathering and we will be hearing Richard Smallwood's "Healing" from an invited soloist. If you have a hymn, or any piece of music which has served to heal your body, mind, heart or soul, please email churchoffice@towsonuuc.org with the information and we will try to incorporate it in the service. And if you want to sing it, we can look at that possibility. "Music can heal the wounds that medicine cannot touch" - Debasish Mridha

VIRTUAL VESPERS – NOVEMBER 30 FROM 7-7:30 PM

Virtual Vespers is a contemplative service of readings and music. This is a time to rest from the demands of the world; to let go of stress; to meditate; and to deepen one's spiritual life.

YOUTH RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION

All Youth Religious Exploration activities are on hiatus for this week. We hope you have a lovely and safe Thanksgiving. Parents of younger children are invited to look for the parent email that suggests follow up activities to enhance the themes from this month.

Members of the 8th/9th grade group enjoyed hiking and being together at Cromwell Valley park on Sunday. Please watch your email for updates in December.

TUUC AUCTION 2020—DIAMOND JUBLIATION! WE DID IT!

It wasn't quite the same, but it was glorious none-the-less. Our Virtual, Covid-constrained Diamond Jubilation! Auction came off, almost without a hitch, and what a fun evening we had. There was the curious case of Sheila's cat logging her off of Bid Beacon at an inopportune moment and Neil valiantly fighting off hydraulic urgency (We think he did.) as he completed a Raffle drawing. But all that aside, we had spirited bidding, great entertainment, and a stellar MC and Auctioneer. There was a Whole Lotta Shakin' Goin' On and we made $15,000 to support the Towson Unitarian Universalist Church and its excellent programs.

We three Co-Chairs are so grateful to the wonderful team we had in the Auction Committee that adopted to the new reality of a Virtual Auction and made it succeed with enthusiasm, creativity and incredibly hard work. Thank you to the musicians; Andy Peterson and Once Around the Horn, Tony Bonta and Jay Herzog, and Deborah Spice Kleinmann and Lizza whose talent, stage presence and production efforts and expertise kept us entertained throughout the evening. Thanks to the technical ushers who coordinated this complex ZOOM event to keep it interesting and engaging. Thank you to Kai and Phil who never complained and tirelessly fulfilled every one of a thousand requests that always had to be done "right away." Special thanks to Patty and John Barry who opened their home and skillfully hosted us as MC and Auctioneer. You made it delightful and we all want you to do this every week with a Barrytown, Baltimore reality series.

Most of all, thanks to all of you donors and bidders, buyers and participants who made November 21st a great success, and an evening to remember fondly.

Dan Alper, Marilyn Maze, and Nina Della Vecchia; your 2020 Auction Co-Chairs

TUUC PRESENTATION ON AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY FROM JIM CROW TO BLACK LIVES MATTER IN BALTIMORE COUNTY – SUNDAY, DECEMBER 6 AT 7:00 PM

The presentation, from someone who has led walking tours in East Towson, is an attempt to understand this enclave from the perspective of Jim Crow to Black Lives Matter. East Towson is unique to Baltimore County as it became a thriving but tight knit community located adjacent to Towson's urban core. Its founders were freed or manumitted enslaved persons from Hampton Plantation. Descendants of enslaved people from Hampton can be found in the neighborhood today. This presentation has been organized to not only revolve around the black resident history but political events that had major consequence in East Towson. The underlying purpose is to educate audiences to the value of this unique Jim Crow neighborhood.

Join us in learning about his enclave from the perspective of Jim Crow to Black Lives Matter. Carol Allen is a historic preservationist, Executive Director of Historic Towson, Inc. (1992-2006) and Commissioner of Baltimore County Land Preservation Commission, Immediate Past Chair (2006-2018). Nancy Goldring is the President of the Northeast Towson Improvement Association, Inc. (N.E.T.I.A., Inc.). She grew up in Historic East Towson and is the granddaughter of the late Adelaide Bentley.

There will be time for questions following the presentation. Thanks to Towson Unitarian Universalist Church, all other group leaders, tech ushers and supporters for making this event possible. Special thanks to Carol Allen, Nancy Goldring, and Deborah Spice Kleinmann. Zoom Information below.

TUUC BLOOD DRIVE - SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12

Working with the American Red Cross, we've scheduled Saturday, December 12th, 2020 for the next TUUC Blood Drive.

NEW INFO: The Red Cross is testing all donations for COVID-19 antibodies. The antibody test is authorized by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and will indicate if the donor's immune system has produced antibodies to the coronavirus, regardless of whether they developed symptoms. This test is not to diagnose current COVID-19 symptoms, referred to as a diagnostic test. Click here to learn more about COVID-19 Antibody testing.

organization in Baltimore City and County dedicated to assisting men who are homeless who want to change their lives, and to changing community attitudes toward the homeless. While things are very different in the world, the men continue to change their lives. So far, no one at either program has tested positive for COVID. To date this year they have housed 30 men at Earl's Place, where 17 men are housed and supported at a time in transitional housing. Of the 13 who have left the program, ten moved to permanent housing. These milestones and so many more are only possible with your support. ## 2021 COMMON READ, BY ANDREW HAGER, PRESIDENT-ELECT

In Iceland, there is a holiday tradition where family members exchange books on Christmas Eve, then spend the night reading and eating chocolate. I find this simultaneously quaint and aspirational.

If, like me, you loved the thought of curling up with a book during the long, dark nights of late autumn and early winter, you'll likely relish the return of TUUC's Common Read. Last year, we read An Indigenous People's History of the United States. This year, we'll be reading a series of books about anti-racism and discussing them in the Spring as part of our ongoing education and discussion around the 8th Principle.

For February: Stamped from the Beginning by Ibram X. Kendi or Stamped (Young Adult Adaptation) by Jason Reynolds

Synopsis: "The construct of race has always been used to gain and keep power to create dynamics that separate and silence. Dr. Ibram X. Kendi's National Book Award-winning Stamped from the Beginning reveals the history of racist ideas in America, and inspires hope for an antiracist future. It takes you on a race journey from then to now, shows you why we feel, how we feel, and why the poison of racism lingers. It also proves that while racist ideas have always been easy to fabricate and distribute, they can also be discredited."

Meeting: Monday, 2/22/2021, 7:30-9:00 PM

For March: Punching the Air by Ibi Zoboi and Yusef Salaam

Synopsis: "From award-winning author Ibi Zoboi and prison reform activist Yusef Salaam of the Exonerated Five comes a powerful YA novel in verse about a boy who is wrongfully incarcerated."

Meeting: Monday, 3/22/2021, 7:30-9:00 PM

For April: Breathe: A Letter to My Sons by Imani Perry

Synopsis: "Emotionally raw and deeply reflective, Imani Perry issues an unflinching challenge to society to see Black children as deserving of humanity. She admits fear and frustration for her African American sons in a society that is increasingly racist and at times seems irredeemable. However, as a mother, feminist, writer, and intellectual, Perry offers an unfettered expression of love—finding beauty and possibility in life—and she exhorts her children and their peers to find the courage to chart their own paths and find steady footing and inspiration in Black tradition." (This is the UUA's Common Read choice for this year.)

Meeting: Monday, 4/19/2021, 7:30-9:00 PM
