REV. CLARE L. PETERSBERGER: "I CARRY THOSE DAYS IN A TINY BOX..."

END OF DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME! TIME TO RESET YOUR CLOCKS ON SATURDAY NIGHT!

We may no longer need to "remember" to set our clocks back for the end of daylight savings time since many of us have technology that does it for us. But given that our spiritual question for November is the challenges and adventures of holding history, it seems appropriate to begin this exploration with a reflection on memory and what it is. A ninety-six-year-old philosopher will guide us in our meditations on memory.

YOUTH RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION

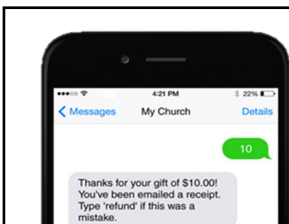

On November 7, families will meet at TUUC at 3 pm to learn about our 6th principle, working for a better world and how we can do that as individuals, families, and as a faith community. One group that TUUC supports, the Assistance Centers of Towson Churches, helps our community in many ways, but especially by addressing food insecurity. We hope that you can come join us as we assemble Thanksgiving baskets that will be taken to ACTC for distribution to our neighbors in need (after a hunt for cans hidden in the playground and picnic grove).

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 7 SERVICE INFORMATION

For Sunday, November 7, please join us at 10:15 AM to be admitted prior to the service starting at 10:30. We will have break-out rooms for coffee and conversation following the service.

CLARE'S COLLOQUY

The Soul Matters Packet for November on "Holding History" begins with this quote from the Quaker theologian Parker Palmer:

"Jewish teaching includes frequent reminders of the importance of a broken-open heart, as in this Hasidic tale: A disciple asks the rebbe: "Why does Torah tell us to 'place these words upon your hearts'? Why does it not tell us to place these holy words in our hearts?" The rebbe answers: "It is because as we are, our hearts are closed, and we cannot place the holy words in our hearts. So we place them on top of our hearts. And there they stay until, one day, the heart breaks and the words fall in." The introduction goes on to observe: "Like those holy words, history in its fullness just sits there until our hearts break open and allow it in."

I was reminded of this story when The Reverend David Carl Olsen invited me to record a prayer for the Channing Commemorative Sunday (formerly known as "Union Sunday".) For decades, congregations near First Unitarian Universalist Church of Baltimore were invited to participate in a service in early May honoring the anniversary of when William Ellery Channing delivered "The Baltimore Sermon" at the ordination of Jared Sparks on May 5, 1819. Channing's sermon defined American Unitarianism in the early 19th century. Often the guest preacher(s) for Union Sunday focused on parts of the sermon, parts of our history, that might shine a light on contemporary Unitarian Universalism.

Because of the pandemic, we did not gather in May of 2021. Instead, First UU of Baltimore celebrated a Channing Commemorative Sunday on October 24th. It was fitting that The Revs. Phyllis Hubbell and John Manwell, who had served First Unitarian Universalist Church of Baltimore for fourteen years, chose to focus on permanent core of our faith from May of 1819 until now. Much has changed in the world in the last 19 months let alone since 1819! What spiritual wisdom do we still place on our hearts until our hearts break open to receive such wisdom?

In an e-mail conversation with Phyllis, she responded, "Here is something that might help with the prayer on images of god from the Baltimore sermon: 'We regard the spirit of love, charity, meekness, forgiveness, liberality, and beneficence as the brightest image we can bear of God, as the best proof of piety.'"

The spirit of love, charity, meekness, forgiveness, liberality, and beneficence. Whatever images of God (or of no God) that we bear in our own faith journeys, we Unitarian Universalists still hold this part of our history with care and gratitude. If you would like to view the Channing Commemorative Sunday worship service, it is posted here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7y8xtZ2nvlA>

The spirit of love, charity, meekness, forgiveness, liberality, and beneficence...may you feel these words not only resting on your heart but falling into your heart just when you need them. May they lead you to hold fast to that which is good---from generation to generation.

UPCOMING PROGRAMS AND EVENTS AT TOWSON UUC

TUUC GALLERY UNICORN

In optimistic hope that we will all be together, physically, in the TUUC building in 2022, Gallery Unicorn is seeking volunteers. Gallery Unicorn is an art gallery that lives on the walls of the meeting room at TUUC. In pre-COVID times, Gallery Unicorn sponsored a rotating, year-round display of art. All proceeds from Gallery Unicorn are donated to the church. GU volunteers assist with setting up and taking down the exhibitions, setting up refreshments during exhibit opening receptions, and publicity. If you are interested in volunteering with Gallery Unicorn, please contact Lisa Lubomski at galleryunicorn@towsonuuc.org.

TUUC DRUM CIRCLE TO MEET OUTDOORS—SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6

Join the rhythm on Saturday, November 6th outside on the TUUC grounds! We'll meet from 4:00 to 5:00 in the TUUC parking lot. Participants must RSVP to Tracy at music@towsonuuc.org, and must be masked during the event. Limited to 10 people. Bring a hand drum if you have one, but there will be a few available instruments.

GREEN SANCTUARY MEETING—SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 7 AT NOON

The Green Sanctuary Committee will meet at noon on Sunday November 7th at noon. Zoom information is on the TUUC calendar. All are welcome! Contact Carel Hedlund (info in Breeze) if you have any questions.

ETHNIC LUNCH—WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 17 AT LA TAVERNA ECUATORIANA

Fall weather is upon us and although we may still have warm sunny days in November, Janet and I have decided it is time to move Ethnic Lunch inside. Returning to our original list from 2020, our next lunch will be at La Taverna Ecuatoriana for an Ecuadorian meal. La Taverna is small but tables are spaced and when I checked it out in September to make sure it was still open, my friend and I were the only customers there. The food is good with lots of seafood choices. La Taverna Ecuatoriana is in Greektown, 300 Oldham Street, 410-501-8020. <https://la-taverna-ecuatoriana-restaurant.business.site/> Lunch will be at 12:30, Wednesday November 17. All are welcome, but please respond by Monday, November 15 to ethniclunch@towsonuuc.org so we will know how many tables to hold.

Hope you can join us! -Janet Kuperstein and Claudia Sumler

PROPOSED TUUC REOPENING MATRIX

On October 24, the TUUC Board of Trustees hosted a Listening Session on the plan for re-opening TUUC. For those who missed it, here is what was presented:

Background: During the summer, we had hoped that TUUC would be operating in-person beginning in early September. The highly contagious COVID Delta variant meant that reopening would be more complicated and prolonged. The Board identified the need for a reopening plan and worked with the A-Team to identify protocols for the different risk levels. We agreed to use the levels established by COVID ActNow, whose data comes from official sources including the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, The New York Times, and official state and county dashboards.

Goal: The goal of this document is to provide clarity and transparency around the criteria for making decisions about reopening TUUC for in-person activities. This document is a DRAFT framework and is subject to change depending on metrics. This document is NOT intended to provide final details within each stage or a timeframe for reopening.

The matrix is grounded in our core values, drawn from the UUA:

- Recognition that our risk-taking and our protective actions affect far more than just ourselves in this interdependent web of existence
- Expectation of vaccination and accessibility and inclusion for all of our members and friends to participate in our congregation
- Ethical treatment and expectations for our leaders and staff, minimizing the risks to their own health and well-being
- Seeking consent from those responsible for TUUC programs and activities.
- Our affirmation that good science, coupled with our values, must be the basis on which we make these decisions

Some further notes on the plan

Transitioning from one risk level to another: Metrics need to qualify for 7 days before transitioning, and the minimum time in a phase is 14 days. Transitions are one phase at a time, no skipping. This will allow us to prepare for new programs that may be enabled by the transition from one phase to another. Circumstances may require TUUC to return to a more restrictive phase at any time.

Multiplatform (hybrid) services: We are committed to continuing to provide accessible engagement with TUUC when we are able to transition back to in-person worship and programs. Funds have been budgeted for equipment and for upgrading our internet capacity/speed, as well as for hiring a professional Audio Visual consultant/support staff to run the streaming equipment. We are in the process of developing this capability. Heartfelt thanks to Sue Royer and Ellie Hughes for preparing and presenting this context.

Most of you are aware that when it comes to:

Religious Exploration: Families have been exploring our Unitarian Universalist principles on Sunday afternoons outdoors. We will consider planning for classes indoors when it is safer for our students to be gathered inside.

Music: Singing has been identified as one of the highest risk activities. Instrumental music, soloists and small groups of singers will most likely be phased in earlier due to less risks of transmission.

This matrix is a work in progress. When the A-Team meets, we review the Covid Act Now numbers. This matrix has gone through several iterations between the A-Team and the TUUC Board of Trustees and will continue to do so in the weeks ahead. Our current focus is the technology needed for the participation of those who cannot physically be present in the building.

----Rev. Clare on behalf of the A-Team which includes Kai Aiyetoro, Clare Flynn-Avallone, and Dan Alper. Thanks to Sue Royer and Ellie Hughes for their good work on this matrix and on our reopening plan on behalf of the TUUC Board of Trustees!

SOCIAL ACTION

DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THIS PARTNER WE SUPPORT?

*( Please note the changes in dates for Text Donations below **)*

This month, we highlight two programs:

1. ACTC (Assistance Center of Towson Churches) Thanksgiving Basket Project
2. Earl's Place

THANKSGIVING BASKET PROJECT

For the annual Thanksgiving Basket Project, we would appreciate donations by November 14.

Most of us are fortunate enough to have plenty of food, but, especially during the pandemic, there are many families who face a bleak Thanksgiving. As we did last year, TUUC is asking only for monetary donations, rather than your purchasing food baskets. A $25 donation will purchase a basket. Giving $10 extra would also cover the cost of a turkey. The ACTC is hoping that each church will be able to donate enough money for at least 50 baskets.

To donate, please either:

- a. Send a check payable to TUUC to 1710 Dulaney Valley Rd. Lutherville MD 21093. Please specify "Thanksgiving Basket" or "ACTC" on the memo line, or,
- b. * Text your donation November 1 - November 13 (Sat) or November 16-17 (Mon & Tues) to TUUC (410-834-0700) for SAC Social Action Committee (ex: text "30 SAC.")

To volunteer, as in the past, Trinity Episcopal Church will host this event. Trinity is located across from ACTC at 120 Allegheny Ave. in Towson. Baskets will be distributed to families on Monday and Tuesday, November 22 and 23. Anyone who wishes to help organize or distribute baskets can sign up for a volunteer shift right on our website, using this link: <https://www.actconline.info/thanksgiving/>

- Mondays, 12 to 2 PM: Ascension Lutheran Church parking lot (7601 York Rd.)
- Thursdays, 12 to 2 PM: Trinity Episcopal Church parking lot (120 Allegheny Ave.)
- Thursdays, 5 to 6 PM: Valley Baptist Church parking lot (1401 York Rd.)

EARL'S PLACE

Earl's Place, along with Prospect Place, are programs of Cornerstone Community Housing (CCH). CCH is dedicated to helping men experiencing homelessness rebuild their lives and to changing attitudes toward homelessness through outreach and education. Earl's Place, which is a stepping stone on the way to attaining a permanent home, houses 17 men at a time. The support of organizations like TUUC help provide the steady income necessary to provide hope, help and home to men experiencing homelessness.

To learn more about Cornerstone Community Housing (Earl's Place), visit their website: <http://www.cchbaltimore.org/>

November 14: At the November 14 service Sheila Helgerson, director of Earl's Place, will speak briefly about it. The entire (non-pledge) offertory plate will be donated to Earl's Place. To contribute to Earl's Place, use one of these methods:

- Donate as you normally would, for the November 14 Service
- Send a check payable to TUUC and send to 1710 Dulaney Valley Rd. Lutherville MD 21093 and specify "Earl's Place" or "CCH" on the memo line
-  Text your donation to TUUC (410-834-0700) for SAC Social Action Collection ex: text "30 SAC." Text Donations to Earl's Place will only be those texted on November 14-15 (Sun/Mon)

Two of our regular technical ushers have moved from the area. We need additional volunteers to give the regulars a break. The most pressing need is for people who are comfortable with Powerpoint (or Keynote) and have a very good internet connection – to be the A/V usher once a month on Sunday morning. Rehearsals are Thursdays at 6 PM. Please contact churchoffice@towsonuuc.org for additional information or to volunteer.
