

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10, 2021 - 7:30 PM - BLUE HOLIDAYS SERVICE

REV. CLARE L. PETERSBERGER: "ELUSIVE JOY"

Our spiritual theme this month is "Opening To Joy." But sometimes it is difficult to open to joy. Joy can be elusive----especially at this darkest time of the year. Tonight, we make space to honor losses and worries, as well as feelings of grief, loneliness, anxiety, and disappointment. You are invited to bring five candles to your device (it is not necessary to do so to participate.) The purpose of this contemplative service is to acknowledge our feelings; to sing; to meditate and pray; and to light candles in the darkness.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10 SERVICE INFORMATION

For Friday, December 10, please join us at 7:15 PM to be admitted prior to the service starting at 7:30 PM. We will have break-out rooms for coffee and conversation following the service.

REV. CLARE L. PETERSBERGER: "THE STAR OF JOY"

No, this is not a service on the star over Bethlehem. December 8 was Bodhi Day when Buddhists celebrate the Buddha achieving enlightenment after watching the morning star rise. What does Buddhism teach about where joy is to be found?

For Sunday, December 12, please join us at 10:15 AM to be admitted prior to the service starting at 10:30. We will have break-out rooms for coffee and conversation following the service.

YOUTH RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Families are invited to join us this Sunday at noon for a virtual Winter Holiday party. We will share our favorite holiday item, make holiday ornaments from simple supplies and our imaginations, have a scavenger hunt, and share a classic holiday story. We hope you can join us! Please check the TUUC calendar or the parent email for the zoom link.

CLARE'S COLLOQUY

At a collegial gathering last spring, colleagues watched a video of children in a UU congregation describing what they had done and learned throughout the first year of the pandemic. I was struck by the range of emotions.

On the one hand, many students shared how they missed being with friends at school; missed particular teachers; missed celebrating with friends for birthdays; missed celebrating holidays with families; oh, and they certainly did not like social distancing and wearing masks.

On the other hand, each student shared something positive that they had done or learned or experienced during the pandemic: spending more time with a pet; spending more time with parents; learning how to cook a dish; doing yoga every day; creating a cartoon strip; jumping rope outside; painting; reading books; and dancing! In the midst of what was a difficult time for everyone these children had found, created and shared moments of joy.

In the ancient stories of this season, joy comes in the most challenging and dire of circumstances: people fearing their sources of food had ended; people facing a defiled place of worship after a long and divisive war; a couple making a journey away from the home of the teenager about to give birth with no room for them in the inn. People shout in joy when they realize the light is returning to the land; people rejoice at the miracle of a single jar of oil burning for eight days; and people hear tidings of great joy when the baby is born.

The ancient stories and the narratives of children last spring are a reminder that joy comes in the midst of, not in spite of, hardship. And it is often found in the ordinariness of our days. Brenee Brown writes: Joy comes to us in moments – ordinary moments. We risk missing out on joy when we get too busy chasing down the extraordinary... when you talk to people who have survived great losses, it is clear that joy is not a constant. Without exception, all the participants who spoke to me about their losses, and what they missed the most, spoke about ordinary moments. “If I could come downstairs and see my husband sitting at the table and cursing at the newspaper...” “If I could hear my son giggling in the backyard...” “My mom sent me the craziest texts – she never knew how to work her phone. I’d give anything to get one of those texts right now”.

Our spiritual theme for December is “opening to joy.” With scary news about the Omicron variant; the economy; social injustices; the viciousness in politics; etc.,---this may seem like an untimely theme!

Perhaps we need to open ourselves to joy--not in spite of these realities--but because of them. Perhaps we need to open ourselves to the joy to be found in the ordinariness of our days. We will do so on December 5 as we reflect on times when we were surprised by joy and on December 12 when we remember where the Buddha sought and found enlightenment. And if opening to joy seems too difficult, there will be an “elusive joy” or “Blue Holiday” service at 7:30 p.m. on the evening of Dec. 10. You will not want to miss our multigenerational service on December 19th. Our students have recorded an ancient story for us to enjoy! For Christmas Eve, at 5 p.m. you are invited to bring an ornament to your device that sparks joy and be prepared to share its story. At 7:30 p.m. we will celebrate a more traditional service focused on sharing joy. For either or both services, please bring a candle to your device so that we can “pass” the flame while singing “Silent Night.”

May we experience moments of joy in the midst of all that is unknown in December. May we share our joy with others. For as the UU students reminded us such sharing brings joy to the world!

TOWSON 2021 AUCTION

Thanks to everyone--donors and bidders, committee members, other volunteers and TUUC staff who made this year's Gather Our Gifts! auction a resounding success and a great deal of fun. Together we raised $17,500 for the Towson Unitarian Universalist Church!

There's still chance to purchase the last places for some very enticing events, activities and services. You can hike, bike, eat, drink, learn, craft, sing, play games or be entertained while getting to know the other participants a little bit better. One particularly fun item is Len Proctor's online Improv Class which needs one or two additional takers. Ann had to twist my arm to buy this last year because I was worried about being put on-the-spot to perform. I was wrong. The classes were a blast. Very playful, totally non-judgmental and confidence-building.

The complete list and how to order appear in the POST AUCTION SALES link on the Auction Webpage.

Dan Alper and the 2021 Auction Team

It's not too late...60 undedicated chairs available!

REOPENING PLANS SIMPLIFIED

TUUC intends to re-open for in-person worship when the COVID ActNow website shows Baltimore County, MD at the risk level Medium for 14 consecutive days, and when we have the capability to stream our worship services from the meeting room.

We will be requiring those who attend in person to register, social distance, wear a mask and be fully vaccinated. We will have reduced capacity at the Medium risk level.

Baltimore County is currently at the High risk level. Here is a link to the website: https://covidactnow.org/us/maryland-md/county/baltimore_county/?s=26201524

A vendor has been selected to provide and install streaming equipment and we're excited to move forward with them! Our re-opening plans are subject to change.

HELP WANTED: CHILD AND TEEN MUSICIANS FOR FAMILY SERVICE ON CHRISTMAS EVE

Do you have a piece of music you'd like to play on an instrument, or a solo song you'd like to share with the congregation on Christmas Eve? We are looking for teens or children to add musically to the 5:00 PM service, either by playing live on Zoom or by pre-recording. If you need piano accompaniment, that can be arranged! It will be a heart-warming service of sharing our favorite ornaments and hearing stories about joy. All we need is you! Contact Tracy Hall at music@towsonuuc.org.

EARL'S PLACE

Earl's Place, along with Prospect Place, are programs of Cornerstone Community Housing (CCH). CCH is dedicated to helping men experiencing homelessness rebuild their lives and to changing attitudes toward homelessness through outreach and education. Earl's Place, which is a stepping stone on the way to attaining a permanent home, houses 17 men at a time. The support of organizations like TUUC help provide the steady income necessary to provide hope, help and home to men experiencing homelessness. To learn more about Cornerstone Community Housing (Earl's Place), visit their website: <http://www.cchbaltimore.org/>

At the November 14 service Sheila Helgerson, director of Earl's Place, provided a wonderful talk about Earl's Place. To contribute to Earl's Place, use one of these methods:

- Send a check payable to TUUC and send to 1710 Dulaney Valley Rd. Lutherville MD 21093 and specify "Earl's Place" or "CCH" on the memo line
- Text your donation to TUUC (410-834-0700) for SAC Social Action Collection ex: text "30 SAC."
- Donate on Breeze: From the top of the first page of the website select "donate" and choose "EP" on the Drop-down list.

Two of our regular technical ushers have moved from the area. We need additional volunteers to give the regulars a break. The most pressing need is for people who are comfortable with PowerPoint (or Keynote) and have a very good internet connection – to be the A/V usher once a month on Sunday morning. Rehearsals are Thursdays at 6 PM. Please contact churchoffice@towsonuuc.org for additional information or to volunteer.
