REV. KARYN MARSH—THE PLEASURE PRINCIPLE

Poet Toi Derricotte once wrote, “Joy is an act of resistance.” This simple statement has galvanized a generation of social justice activists, particularly black feminists like Adrienne Marree Brown, author of Emergent Strategy and Pleasure Activism. Historically, joy and pleasure have been viewed in Western culture with suspicion. In today’s service, Rev. Karyn Bergmann Marsh will explore the roots of this suspicion and the place of pleasure and joy in creating change.
