CLARE'S COLLOQUY

Our spiritual theme for January is walking the path of finding our center. What images come to mind when you think of finding your center?

For me, it sparked the memory of attending a Quaker elementary school. In second grade, we were invited into a moment of silence, before lunch, to listen for the still small voice within. I closed my eyes, heard nothing, and opened one eye to see if it looked like those around me were hearing anything.

Now, as an adult, I now know not to listen for a literal still small voice. In order to center, now, I focus on deep breathing: inhaling for four seconds, holding for four seconds, and exhaling for eight seconds. It brings me into the present moment. I feel my shoulders relax.

This month, as a congregation, we are being invited into a process to help one another to discover our center. On January 28th, BRIDGE Maryland, will be launching a Sacred Listening Campaign. Leaders in our congregation will be trained in how to engage in Sacred Listening through one-on-one meetings with members of TUUC. The purpose of these 30-45 minute meetings is not to talk about the weather; or offer therapy, or discuss stewardship, or do a needs assessment for TUUC. The purpose of these meetings is to create an intentional relationship to help us, as individuals, to find our center---not in terms of deep breathing---but in terms of where our center is sending us these days to work to improve our communities and world. Areas to explore in a 1-1 include

- | | | | |
|----------------|--------------------|----------------|----------------|
| * life story | * family | * occupation | * avocation |
| * faith | * politics | * associations | * neighborhood |
| * congregation | * plans for future | * obstacles | * gifts |

I am very excited by the possibilities for this Sacred Listening Campaign within TUUC. The center of our faith tradition is right relationships. By engaging in this process from the end of January through mid-March, we will get to know ourselves and one another at a deeper level and discover what the center of our congregation is in 2022! And we will bring what we learn to a BRIDGE, MD meeting in April to discern what the center of BRIDGE, MD of Baltimore County will be!

If you are interested in the training on Sacred Listening, please speak with me.

As our Soul Matters Sharing Circles packet notes:

“As we try to make sense of “finding our center” this month, it’s fine to pull up the image of the Buddha sitting peacefully under a tree, but we can’t let that overshadow the image of a diver balancing way up there on her diving board, pausing to regain her composure and courage so she can leap and go “all in.”

Maybe in the end, instead of only asking each other, “Are you centered these days?” we need to ask, “Where is your center sending you these days?” and “Where is your center calling you to go?”

Here’s to walking the path of finding our center with ourselves, with each other, and with BRIDGE, MD!

YOUTH RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION—IT'S A NEW DAWN, IT'S A NEW DAY

New beginnings at fraught with potential for new adventure and opportunities to grow. The Religious Education Program is embracing that potential and sliding into this New Year with open hearts and excited bodies, ready to wiggle our way into the next chapter here at TUUC.

The K-5th Class will be beginning a new curriculum titled "Growing an AntiRacist." It is based on the proven reality that children are aware of injustice and power dynamics as early as five years old and that these concepts can solidify in their minds as early as 9. We will be offering age-appropriate opportunities to have conversations around the topics of race, justice, and inequality.

The Middle School Class will continue their tour of world religion. January will bring them to Asia, beginning with Taoism.

The High School Class delves deeper into the Coming of Age Curriculum, moving from the Belonging section (where we come from) and into the Becoming section (who we are). This program is designed to consciously move teens from the myopic gaze of the typical child to a more inclusive and intentional way of seeing themselves and the world.

And now, for all of you reading this, I suggest you check out this video for a beautiful story of family, skilled dancing, and an iconic voice. This is how I'm focusing my energy for the New Year: Feelin' Good by Nina Simone: <https://youtu.be/oHRNrgDIJfo>

TUUC AUCTION—WE DID IT! THANK YOU!

Thanks to all who donated, bid, volunteered and participated for making this year's Rising Together auction a resounding success and a great deal of fun. We had a large and lively crowd attending in-person and more joining us on Zoom. Together we raised $23,000 for the Towson Unitarian Universalist Church.

There are places left in some of the excellent activities offered at the Auction by our wonderful donors. They include dinners, bike rides, hikes, performances, professional services and more. Click here for the list of all available places and instructions on how to make a purchase. There is also a link on the auction webpage at towsonuuc.org/auction.

OUR TUUC COVID POLICY AND MASKING

On Sunday, a visitor asked me if all of Baltimore County is requiring masking now. No. At TUUC we currently are because the hospitalization rate is over 10 per 100,000.

Today, a very responsible TUUC member alerted me that they had been at church on Sunday and tested positive for Covid two days later. We reviewed those with whom they may have been in close contact in order to notify them.

So, for now, until Baltimore County is out of the yellow zone on Covid Act Now, please be prepared to mask if you attend worship in the building and while we sing. If you are comfortable unmasking to eat and drink, you are welcome to do so in the foyer in order to partake of hospitality.

We will continue to offer multi-platform worship. And we are beginning to avail ourselves of our new technology to host multi-platform meetings downstairs!

We are all looking forward to Covid numbers going down along with the number of flu and RSV cases! We wish each other well (including speedy and smooth recoveries) as we move through this season of winter viruses.

DO WE HAVE THE CORRECT NUMBER TO TEXT YOU?

Your A-Team has been reviewing our Inclement Weather Policy. In 2023, it is much easier to notify members and friends of any time sensitive closures by texting. Our congregation's software offers this option. But we do not have the cell phone number of every member and friend of TUUC. If we have the best number to text you, thank you. If we don't, please consider sharing it with our Church Administrator, Kai Aiyetoro, so that you can receive time-sensitive texts from TUUC. We will protect your privacy! Our request is so that we can communicate time-sensitive information with you. Thank you!

IN CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE OF DR. ALBERT HYBL

We regret to inform you of the death of Dr. Albert Hybl, the husband of TUUC member Lois Hybl on December 12. Al was born in Iowa City, Iowa in 1932. He earned a BA in math and chemistry at Coe College. Al was drafted into the US army in 1954. He received his PhD in Chemistry and Math with a specialization in Crystallography from the California Institute of Technology. He served as a professor of biophysics at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. Al was a renaissance person with interests ranging from classical music to chess to mushroom hunting. Many of us remember Al as Lois's dancing partner. They enjoyed the polka, waltz, folk, and Irish social dancing. They traveled to the Czech Republic, Slovakia and Ireland for dance workshops and tours. They were married for 60 years. Messages of condolence may be sent to Lois (her contact information is in Breeze.) A celebration of AI's life will be held at the Towson Unitarian Universalist Church at 11 AM on March 11th.

NEXT TUUC SOCRATES CAFÉ TO PONDER BOUNDARIES TO TOLERANCE—MONDAY, JANUARY 16 AT 7:30 PM

At the next virtual Socrates Cafe, third Monday, January 16th, from 7:30-9:00 PM, we will address, as Socrates would have us do, the question, suggested by Jeff Savoye: "Are there boundaries to tolerance?" To our regular participants, Jeff has offered two suggestions for background reading, relevant to both this month's question and our question in December: "What is UUism? Is it still a church?" One of the articles can be found online by Googling "Strained Bedfellows: Pagans, New Agers, and Starchy Humanists in Unitarian Universalism" (UU Humanist Association 1996). The other, by writer David Cycleback, one appraisal of the goals of the UUA, is from his Web site, Looking at Artifacts and Ideas. Also, the proposed revisions to the UU Bylaws, including the proposed changes to Article II, which contains the principles and sources, can be Googled, using the words: "Proposed Changes to the UU Bylaws and Article II." Peter Talley has suggested a YouTube, featuring the conservative intellectual ("take it as you will"), Jordan Peterson, and his expose, "Chat GPT and AI WILL TAKE OVER." Those who would like to join us on the 16th, and who are not already on our email list, may send an email to our group at socratescafe@towsonuuc.org and receive the Zoom Link the day before. As Socrates has said: "The unexamined life is not worth living."

OUR MESSY LIVES TO DISCUSS THE WORD "MYSTIQUE"—THURSDAY, JANUARY 19 AT 3:00 PM

During our next virtual Our Messy Lives meeting next Thursday afternoon, January 19th, from 3:00-4:00 PM, we will be discussing the word MYSTIQUE. Come and join us! To join, find Nancy Caswell on TUUC's Member List, BREEZE, and send her an email letting her know you'd like to join. Bring your insights about and experiences with the word MYSTIQUE. According to Merriam-Webster, MYSTIQUE is an air or attitude of mystery and reverence developing around something or someone. Who or what have you known that has been endowed with enhanced value or profound meaning? Is it ever an aura? Is it a framework of doctrines, ideas, beliefs constructed around a person or an object? We'll let our thoughts flow and see where this takes us!

SINGLES FELLOWSHIP GROUP POTLUCK—SATURDAY, JANUARY 21 AT 6:00 PM

Join us for good food and conversation in the church upper level lobby. We offer an atmosphere for fellowship and friendship among TUUC single adults. We range in age from the 60's through the 80's, but gladly welcome anyone to join us.

Please call Ronald Rowley to RSVP and to get more information. He is listed in the church directory.

VIRTUAL PARTY GAMES WITH TUUC BOARD—SATURDAY, JANUARY 21 AT 7:00 PM

On Saturday, January 21 at 7 PM, you are invited to join the TUUC Board of Trustees for an evening of online party games! Brew tea, get into some comfy pajamas, and log onto Zoom for some fun! Each year, the Board offers this event as an auction item. We still have spots open for the low cost of $20! Donate to the church and have a great time doing so! As a special bonus, all participants get a goodie bag delivered to their homes! Email Andrew Hager (contact information in Breeze) to claim your spot.

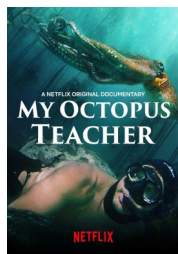

NEXT COMMUNITY CHOIR SUNDAY— SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 5 AT 9:00 AM

Sunday, February 5th will be the next Community Choir. Anyone interested in singing is invited to arrive at 9:00 AM that morning to learn all the music for the service. All ages, all skill levels. Please RSVP to Tracy at music@towsonuuc.org, but if you forget, come and sing anyway!
