

JUNE 25 - 10:30 AM—WORTHY NOW: THE LIGHT OF LIBERATION—WORTHY NOW PRISON MINISTRY NETWORK

This week’s digital service is provided by Worthy Now Prison Ministry Network, a self-described ‘liberal religious coalition’ affirming the worth and dignity of incarcerated persons and as well as providing access to religious and spiritual community. We will learn to distinguish between prison reform and prison abolition as well as share the delight in music offered by Storm Craver, an incarcerated CLF member.

WANT TO HELP PROVIDE MUSIC AT TUUC THIS SUMMER?

During the summer, our Lay Worship Committee members plan, organize, and lead worship. We are looking for a few more people to help with either playing piano or guitar, vocally leading congregational songs, or presenting solos during the summer. You'll need to work with the lay worship leaders to plan relevant music. If you are willing to help provide music during the summer, please contact Tracy Hall at music@towsonuuc.org. Tracy will coordinate with Lay Worship to schedule you where most appropriate.
