Board Hospitality

Invited or expected guests will be scheduled near the beginning of the board meeting when possible and given an amount of time that is allocated for their report or other information.

Unexpected guests who wish to speak with the board may be given a specific amount of time to share if there is time available, at the discretion of the board.

As the elected fiduciary of the congregation, board motions, discussion, and decisions are limited to board members. Guests can make themselves available for additional information or an opinion, if asked.
